If you object to the relief requested, you must file a WRITTEN response to this pleading with the Court. You must also serve your written response on the person who sent you this notice.

If you do not file a written response with the Court, or if you do not serve your written response on the person who sent you this notice, then:

- The Court may refuse to allow you to speak at the scheduled hearing; and
- The Court may rule against you and sustain the objection without formally calling the matter at the hearing.
